

ENTERS A PLEA OF NOT GUILTY.

James M. Shockley, Slayer of the Street Car men, Arraigned Before Judge Diehl.

PRELIMINARY HEARING WAIVED.

Prothero, for Whom Murderer Has the Utmost Contempt, Held as A Witness.

The arraignment of James M. Shockley upon two charges of murder in the first degree for the killings of Motorman Amos L. Gleason and Conductor Thomas B. Brighton on the night of Jan. 6, occurred before Judge Diehl in the city division of the city court at the city and county building at 2:45 o'clock. Shockley pleaded not guilty to both charges and was bound over to the district court without bail. He was taken in charge by Sheriff Emery and Deputy Sheriff Steele and Butler. Shockley was handcuffed and taken to the county jail, where he will remain until after his trial in the district court. Percy Prothero, the room-mate of Shockley, was held as a witness for the state under bonds in the sum of $2,000, in default of which he will be confined in the county jail until after the trial of his former pal.

SHOCKLEY'S ARRIVAL.
The hour for the arraignment was fixed for 2 o'clock but other court matters prevented Judge Diehl from reaching the city and county building until 2:45 o'clock. At 2:55 a carriage party of four, consisting of Shockley, Prothero, and two men in uniform, drove up to the north entrance of the city and county building. The men in uniform, Chief of Police Burdick and Sheriff Emery, entered the building and entered the city and county building. The two men were handcuffed together. They were marched rapidly down the steps into the basement and along to the city and county building. A large number of employees of the building and a few outsiders had learned of the arraignment and were lined up on each side of the building to get a look at Shockley. The latter walked very erect and held his eyes straight ahead of him and paid no attention to the curious gaze of the spectators.

PRISONER RATHER NERVOUS.

After arriving in the courtroom, the handcuffs were removed from the two men and Prothero took a chair at the city and county building. Shockley drew up a chair and seated himself beside his attorney, Wilson and Smith, at the end of the long table used by attorneys while in court. Shockley engaged in conversation with his attorneys while waiting for Judge Diehl to arrive. At the hour of the arraignment he was quite a large crowd waiting for him to arrive at the police court, where he was naturally thought he would be brought for arraignment. Shockley was very pale and for a part time was rather nervous, but that soon wore off and after his arraignment he talked and joked with his attorneys and men waiting for him. During the arraignment three women came into the courtroom and after getting a good look at Shockley quietly departed.

FACES THE COURT.

When Judge Diehl arrived, accompanied by Clerk Bernhart, the court was immediately convened and Clerk Leary called defendant's name. Shockley rose and stood very erect with his hands clasped in front of him. "Are you represented by an attorney?" asked the clerk.
"Yes, sir," was Shockley's reply.
Clerk Leary then read the complaint charging defendant with the murder of Amos L. Gleason and the same plea was entered by Shockley.

NOT GUILTY, SIR.

Clerk Leary then read the complaint charging the prisoner with the murder of Amos L. Gleason and the same plea was entered by Shockley.

WAIVED PRELIMINARY.

County Attorney Westervelt announced that the defense and state had agreed to waive the preliminary hearing in both cases. Attorney Westervelt stated that the defense was willing to waive preliminary hearing with the understanding that defendant does not waive the right to defend to any of the proceedings had up to the time of the hearing or to waive his objection to the jurisdiction of the court as a commitment. That provision was agreeable to County Attorney Westervelt.

A PLAQUE OF THE NIGHT.

Itching Piles and Other Rectal Troubles Easily Cured by a New and Safe Method.

A Remarkable Number of Cures Made by the Pyramid Pile Cure.

About one person in every four suffers from some form of rectal disease. The most common and annoying is itching piles, indicated by warmth, slight moisture and intense, uncontrollable itching to the parts affected. The usual treatment has been some simple ointment or salve which sometimes give temporary relief, but nothing like a permanent cure can be expected from such superficial treatment. The only permanent cure for itching piles yet discovered is the Pyramid Pile Cure, not only for itching piles, but for every other form of piles, blind, bleeding or protruding. The first application gives instant relief and the continued use for a short time causes a permanent removal of the tumors or the small parasites which cause the intense itching and discomfort of itching piles. F. M. Collins of 440 Armitage Ave., Chicago, says: "Some time ago I contracted a disagreeable case of itching piles. After using five boxes I consider myself entirely cured of the disagreeable trouble. Thanks by the way, I shall never fail to recommend it to any of my friends who may happen to be troubled as I was." The Pyramid Pile Cure is probably the only pile cure extensively recommended by physicians, because it is so safe and so prompt in the relief afforded and so far as is known the only positive cure for piles.

All drug stores now sell it at fifty cents per package. The Pyramid Co., Marshall, Mich., for book on cause and cure of piles.

If suffering from any form of piles, send for a package of Pyramid Pile Cure and try it tonight.

velt, so the preliminary hearing was waived. Judge Diehl then bound Shockley over to the district court without bail.

PROTHERO HELD.
Upon the motion of the county attorney, the court bound Prothero over as a witness for the state in the sum of $2,000. Court then adjourned, and after a few minutes Shockley and Prothero were taken in charge by Sheriff Emery and Deputy Sheriff Steele and Butler. Shockley was handcuffed and taken to the county jail, where he will remain until after his trial in the district court. Percy Prothero, the room-mate of Shockley, was held as a witness for the state under bonds in the sum of $2,000, in default of which he will be confined in the county jail until after the trial of his former pal.

DOESN'T LIKE PROTHERO.

In talking to the newspapermen Shockley said that he had been well treated by all the officials and that the only humiliation he had felt since his arrest was having to be handcuffed to Prothero, whom brought in from the state prison. He characterized Prothero as a "low-down groveling coward," and said that he had fed him three meals a day and had even paid for his laundry and then Prothero turned him down like that.

UNIQUE CASE.

J. G. McDonald is in receipt of a cane made by Thomas Williams, a convict at the state prison, who was sent up from Ogden for two years for burglary. In a letter accompanying the cane Williams states that he is anxious to secure counsel to enable him to gain pardon. The unique feature of the piece of work is that the stick is made of the wrappers from candy manufactured by the local firm which was sent out to the prison during Yuletide. The wrappers are strung on a steel rod, pressed together with a heavy weight and neatly turned after having been secured by the topping off of a polished horn handle.

OIL INSPECTOR REPORTS.

Makes Official Statement to Mayor Morris on His Duties.

City Oil Inspector and Sealer of Weights and Measures W. P. Neleker has filed his annual report for the year 1903 with Mayor Morris. During the year 297,306 gallons of oil were inspected, and the fees received for the same amounted to $775.77. Of the above quantity 284,206 gallons were bulk oil and 13,000 gallons case oil. The fees of Mr. Neleker's office for testing and sealing weights and measures amounted to $303.90 of which amount he has been unable to collect $43.50. He reports it is like pulling teeth to get the fees from a majority of dealers, who accuse him of tests and that no fees collected by the city are paid as begrudgingly as they. About 70 per cent of dealers protest against paying the fee and only do so to avoid trouble.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS REASONABLY SAFE.

So Says Committee Appointed to Investigate the Fire Situation.

IMPROVEMENTS RECOMMENDED.

Board Companies Get the Contract for Insurance—Nelson Asks for A Report.

That there is no fear of a repetition of the Chicago disaster in Salt Lake, so far as the public schools are concerned, at any rate, is the report given to the board of education last night by the committee appointed to investigate the situation. The committee consisted of B. S. Young and A. G. Glaucque, who stated that they had visited all the schools during the week, and found them, in the main, in a condition which reduced the fire hazard to a minimum. In some schools minor improvements were recommended, while Mr. Glaucque reported that there was not a building in the city which could not be emptied in three minutes, and some of them, such as the Union, the Wasatch and the Lincoln, could be vacated in half that time.

The building considered the least safe of all is the West Side high school, and in this the committee recommended that it be provided with an outside fire escape, and that the stairway on the north side, which has an awkward spiral turn, be remodelled and made more straight. A similar recommendation was made in regard to a stairway in the Fremont building, with the recommendation that a means of egress be provided on the east side of that building. It was also advised that each basement room in the summer building be provided with a separate exit, and that all the buildings be supplied with Babcock fire extinguishers for every floor, and that the stairways be provided with fire escapes and stand-pipes for the use of firemen. With these improvements, which it was agreed should be carried out, the committee felt that the school buildings would be among the safest public buildings of the city.

SCHOOL INSURANCE.

The matter of school insurance precipitated some debate among the members, but it was finally agreed to give the business to "board" companies, inasmuch as they had decided to meet the "non-board" cut of 90 cents a hundred. The action taken was in accord with a recommendation of the insurance committee, but Messrs. Branning and Newman, who represent the "non-board" companies, had provided the competition resulting in a reduced rate, they were at least entitled to a share of the business. Mr. Young, who presided, to the contentment of his colleagues and explained that the reduction had been brought about in an entirely different way. He said the committee had discovered that the state university insurance was being carried at a rate of 90 cents a hundred, whereas the best rate the board of education had previously been offered, when dividing its insurance, was $1 a hundred, or 1 per cent, for three years. The committee then went to the board of underwriters and asked why they could not get the same rate for the university. They were told that the rate would be given if all the school building insurance were given to "board" companies. Thereupon a committee of the board of education excepted one proposition that all of the insurance would be given to "board" companies provided the rate of 90 cents a hundred were granted.

BOARD COMPANIES WIN.

After further remarks in the same strain the report of the committee was adopted. Messrs. Branning and Newman being the only members who voted against it. The insurance amounts to about $200,000 and the contract runs for three years.

NELSON ASKS FOR REPORT.

Before adjournment Mr. Nelson of the board called for the report of the committee "which was appointed to investigate certain statements purporting to be made by me in newspaper interviews and which were, in fact, made by me." Mr. Glaucque, chairman of the committee referred to, explained that he had been unable to meet with his colleagues, Mr. Henderson, in time to make the investigation, and asked to be excused from making a report at that time.

HON. W. H. PARSONS.

W. H. Parsons is Ex-State Senator and Ex-Special Judge of the Supreme Court of Texas, also Brigadier-General in Confederate Army. In a recent letter from 825 H Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., this prominent gentleman says:

"Upon the recommendation of personal friends and many strong testimonials as to the efficacy of Peruna in the treatment of the numerous symptoms of the grippe with which I have been afflicted for four months past, I have been induced to undergo a treatment with this justly celebrated formula. I feel a decided change for the better after using it only one week. It is especially good in cooling up the stomach and has had a decided effect upon my appetite. I therefore feel much encouraged that I am on the road to complete restoration."

"My numerous friends in Texas, where I have had the honor to command a brigade of the Veteran Cavalry in a four years' war, may accept this voluntary testimonial to the merits of Peruna as a sense of obligation on my part for its wonderful efficacy."—W. H. Parsons.

reaches the source of all diseases of the mucous membranes by its action on the vaso-motor system of nerves.

Every person who has had la grippe during the last year should take a course of Peruna. No one need expect perfect recovery unless they do so. The grippe has produced catarrhal inflammation of the whole mucous membrane, and good health is impossible until these are restored to a normal condition. This Peruna will do. A great many remedies have been suggested for this condition from time to time, but Peruna appears to be the only remedy that has any substantial value in these cases. It has never failed to give satisfaction during forty years' experience and still occupies the unique position of being the leading (if not the only) specific remedy for the after-effects of la grippe.

Henry Dietz, the inventor and maker of all the hand instruments for the Henry Dietz Manufacturing Co., writes the following from 1441 South Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa.:

"I had a bad attack of la grippe last December which lasted more than three months, and which left me with catarrh, and several of my friends advised me to try Peruna. I began with a bottle the first week in March and it certainly did me a great deal of good. I was so well satisfied that I purchased another bottle and followed the directions, and can say that it has cured me."—Henry Dietz.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
